

A Service of eBet Technologies, Inc.

PROGRAMS FOR RESPONSIBLE WAGERING.

Commitment.

CompuBet is committed to responsible wagering. CompuBet through their affiliation with eBet Technologies, Inc. has partnered with the National Council on Problem Gambling (“NCPG”), which is a national organization dedicated to addressing the issues of problem and pathological gambling, to develop a comprehensive responsible gaming program to ensure account holders wager responsibly.

Responsible Gaming Program.

The following outlines CompuBet’s responsible gaming program initiatives:

- Account holders must provide their identity, age and principal place of residence, all of which is verified through a third party information services company, upon establishing an account;
- Account holder must be able to provide proper identification (account number and personal identification number) to ensure only the account holder can access his or her account;
- Account holder is provided documentation prominently displaying NCPG’s national toll-free help line (1-800-522-4700), which is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Information about the NCPG, compulsive gambling, and the NCPG help line number is also displayed on the www.CompuBet.com web site.
- Upon calling the help line, the account holder is routed instantly to the NCPG call center that has responsibility for the caller’s geographic area. Each NCPG call center has resources specifically tailored to deal with individuals affected by problem or pathological gambling;
- CompuBet will permit account holders to self-exclude themselves from CompuBet’s operation merely by providing CompuBet with a letter requesting such exclusion and containing a waiver and release. The letter must be completed and executed by the account holder, and then submitted to CompuBet. The name of the self-excluded gambler will then be placed on a confidential list of excluded persons so as to prevent the individual from reopening their account or opening a new account; and
- CompuBet reserves the right to refuse to accept wagers from anyone for any reason.